Legacy Run Blog – Friday - August 27th, 2010 – Sunday – August 29th, 2010

We had the day off after the Legacy Ride debrief will all the other Legion Riders who took part in the event.

This is just an unofficial meeting to see where we can improve on when we continue this event until we reach our $20 million goal.

As of this blog the grand totals are not available and once they are we will update this blog to include that figure.

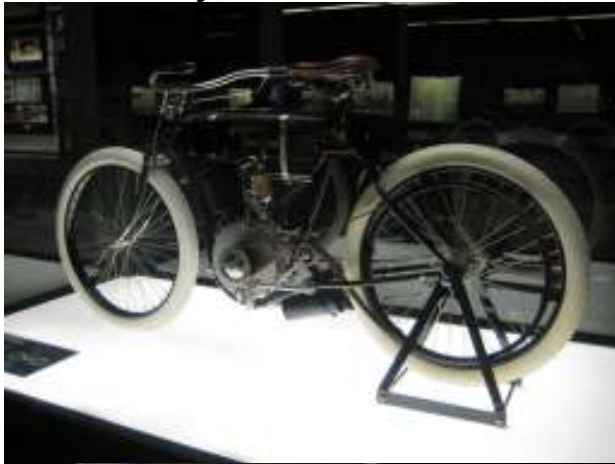

On this particular day we ventured off to the Harley Davidson Museum to take on all of the “Legend”. Enjoy some of our photo’s. Way too ,many pictures to include on this blog. It is a most enjoying site and please take the time to visit it if you are ever in the area.

Ending mileage 2938 on Squids bike.
